

@your library®

diversity

Harmony Week

Harmony Haiku Challenge

for the

Harmony Award

Write a Haiku poem about Harmony and/or Community and submit it to your local library by Saturday 11th March 2006.

Haiku is a form of traditional Japanese poetry incorporating a 17-syllable verse usually consisting of three metrical units of 5, 7, and 5 syllables: e.g.

*Books are wonderful.
They offer the world to you.
Lose yourself in books.*

The winning school will be presented with the inaugural Harmony Award during the Multicultural Festival at Caboolture Town Square on Saturday 25th March 2006.

Grab an entry form at your local library for your chance to win!

For further information of other Harmony Week events, visit:

<http://www.harmony.gov.au/>

<http://library.caboolture.qld.gov.au/news.htm>

@ your library is a collaborative initiative of Queensland libraries funded by the State Library of Queensland through the Queensland Public Libraries Association Project partners: School Library Association of Queensland | Queensland University Libraries Office of Cooperation (QULOC) | Queensland Government Libraries Consortium | Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA)

www.atyourlibrary.slq.qld.gov.au