

Application to Attend ARK Conference

Enhancing Collaboration and Knowledge Sharing in the Energy & Resources Sectors

Conference: 20th – 22th October 2008: Perth

As part of our commitment to provide PD opportunities to our members ALIA is offering one free registration, valued at over $2000, to attend another event presented by the ARK Group.

Application Form now available.

The purpose of this offer is to enable an ALIA member, who would not otherwise receive funding from their organisation, to attend a professional development activity.

This opportunity is open to all ALIA members who meet the following criteria:

1. Personal financial member of ALIA.
2. Currently working in the library and information sector.
3. Have not previously attended an ARK event as an ALIA registrant.

Eligible applicants who wish to be considered for this offer should send a completed application form by the closing date to the ALIA Professional Development Officer. Please ensure to address all criteria as set out in the form.

All applications will be considered on merit. The ALIA Executive Director will make a recommendation to ARK Group concerning the winner of the ALIA registration.

Conditions:

The successful applicant will be required to prepare a report on the event experience and its benefits to be published in InCite at the discretion of ALIA and ARK.

This offer is for event registration only. Any and all other expenses including accommodation and travel costs (if applicable) will be the responsibility of the applicant or their organisation.

Closing date for applications

1st October 2008
