

alia INFORMATION LITERACY forum

- 9:00-9:15 Coffee/tea
- 9:15-9:30 Acknowledgement of Indigenous Owners: Nura Gili Representative
Dr. Sue Green or Jilda Simpson
Welcome from Convenor of ALIA Information Literacy Forum:
Lesley Ngatai
- 9:30-10:00
- Ice Breaker
 - Post it activity: what does IL mean to you? Brief discussion and introduction of some classic definitions
- Facilitator:* Lesley Ngatai
- 10:00-10:45 'Putting 'it' into practice - New Librarians and Information Literacy'
Facilitator: Clare Glanville, Springfield Campus Librarian, University
Southern Queensland
- 10:45-11:00 Morning Tea – provided in room
- 11:00-11:45 Indigenous students and the 'aunty' model of information literacy
Facilitator: Leanne Lovegrove, Sydney Institute of Technology, EORA campus.
- 11:45-12:30 BIOS: an authentically embedded online tutorial BIOS was accepted into the ACRL's database of exemplary online instruction materials; it has been adapted by Southnary for several courses at UNSW
Facilitator: Southnary Tan, UNSW
- 12:30-1:15 Lunch - provided in room
- 1:15-1:45 YOUR TURN
Creating a community of practice by sharing information, knowledge and issues
Open forum discussion.
Facilitator: Lesley Ngatai
- 1:45-2:30 The Corporate Librarian and information literacy
Facilitator: Pamela Stephens, National Training Librarian Blake
Dawson Waldron
- 2:30-3:15 'Critical thinking and student-centered learning in the research lab'
Facilitator: Sarah Graham. University of Sydney
- 3:15-3:30 Afternoon Tea – provided in room
- 3:30-4:15 Christine Bruce QUT. Author of 'The Seven Faces of Information Literacy' and keynote speaker at the New Librarians' Symposium
- 4:15-4:30 CLOSING comments: 'Where to from here, as a Community of Practice?'