

Minutes

South Australian Library Technician Meeting

Tuesday, October 14th 2008

Australian
Library and Information
Association

Attendees:

Martina Munn (Chair), Angela Jones, Riina Sciacca, Amanda Colbert, Kathy Sharrad, Marion Fielke, Ros Emms, Kathy Sampson

'Making the Leap' Weekend workshop.

- Panel members have been finalised:
Kathy Sharrad, Kathy Sampson, Heather Layton, Sharron Zuodar & Christine Cother.
- Story teller members will be:
Heather Brown, Clare Eacott, Rosemary McGrath, Kelvin Brown.
- A spreadsheet of the Enneagram will be handed out at Registration and is to be returned by 4pm.
- Raeco bags: extra content to be added.

MM: to find out from Raeco what the bags will contain.

MF & KS: will see re. extra content eg. List of wineries, material from SA Tourism

- The Murder Mystery is set in the 1880's but as it is a country location casual dress with a country theme is fine for those who wish to "dress the part".

AC: Confirm if Breakfast is included for people with accommodation at Bungaree - RE & Heather F will help with registration

MF: to ring Public Libraries in the mid-north to promote and possibly get material to be added to the Raeco bags.

RE: to source labels

MM: to send ALIA logos to Ros for labels

- Registration RSVP is to be extended to Friday 17th, with website of map added www.bungareestation.com.au

MM: to contact Sharron Zuodar to see why last Wednesday's submission to the list was missed.

AJ: to arrange evaluation forms;

- Presents for Presenters: 1 Aboriginal Elder (if available), Graham Mill, Riina, Marion, Len, Helen Alm & 4 Story tellers

MF: to enquire as to availability of a data projector & laptop to take to Bungaree

AC: to send updated spreadsheet to all members & contact ALIA re any outstanding registrations & request that a Tax Invoice is to be sent to RAECO for $275 for their agreed sponsorship.

Irrespective of additional numbers, the workshop will go ahead.

Next Meeting to finalise the Workshop, Wednesday October 22nd at Fontana de Trevi, Pirie St Adelaide @ 6pm