RIGHT FOR YOU IF:

You would like to learn more about skills and strategies for extending the LIS role. This course focuses on the health library and information field but may also be of interest to others with an interest in professional development in relation to extension of the LIS role.

ABOUT THE COURSE PRESENTER

FOLIO (Facilitated Online Learning as an Interactive Opportunity) was established to provide support for librarians moving into new roles, focussing on the development of skills in health informatics and knowledge management, especially related to digital libraries. The courses are delivered by a team based at SchARR (School of Health and Related Research), University of Sheffield in the UK.

- Receive email communications over eight working weeks via the e-folio discussion list
- Compile a portfolio recording personal activity and participation for submission to the course facilitator
- Email interaction with "buddies" in connection with tasks and exercises (average one task per week – you may work on your own if you choose)
- Read an average of one or two briefings per week
- Each participant will be graded in one of the following grades: Distinction, Credit, Pass, Fail
