

THANK YOU

To our industry partners

The Australian Library and Information Association would like to acknowledge and thank your industry partners for their generous support of ALIA National 2022 Conference.

EXHIBITION HALL

Our exhibition attracts the most innovative industry partners from across Australia and further afield. It's your chance to discover what's new, build relationships and try the latest products and services. Plus, you won't want to miss the fun activities – yoga, relaxation station, competitions and much more.

With over 70 exhibitors participating, you'll want to know who's where. Visit alia.org.au/conference for up-to-date floor plans, exhibitor listings, opening hours and what's on.

ABOUT

Join over 800 of your peers at ALIA National 2022 Conference as we delve into all things Diversity.

This is a chance to celebrate the many layers of diversity within our sector, to recognize the work being done to support greater diversity, equity and inclusion, and acknowledge the work that still needs to be done.
