

Continuing Professional Development Scheme

Competencies

1. Understand Government information environments and the policies, issues and trends that impact on those environments, especially the budget cycle
2. Understand your organisation or agency's vision and strategic direction and the principles and practices related to providing information services to meet your users' needs
3. Understand the management of Government information resources in a broad range of formats
4. Know and understand the application of leadership, finance, communication, and management theory and techniques in a public sector context
5. Understand and use technology and systems to manage all forms of information
6. Understand laws, regulations, directives, standards and policies applicable to your organisation or agency
7. Understand Government research methods and have the ability to critically examine and filter research resources from many fields
8. Develop an understanding of the discipline specific and specialised subject matter required by your organisation or agency
9. Maintain currency of professional knowledge and practice.