

These are some of the ideas which emerged from the ALIA Asia-Pacific Libraries Sustainable Development Goals Summit and Unconference, held on 29 and 30 July, on the Gold Coast, appropriate to ALIA, our Committees and Groups.

Education

1. ALIA will ask library educators to map the SDGs to the LIS curriculum and promote the SDGs as part of their course delivery; the Association will also look at how the SDGs can form part of the ALIA PD Scheme and ALIA Training courses

Conferences and events

2. ALIA will organise SDG sessions as slots on future conference programs and promote the SDGs through video snippets
3. The Big Idea: National Simultaneous SDG campaign for 17 days in 2020, 2025 and 2030 – light up the Sydney Harbour Bridge and other iconic buildings (in discussion with DFAT, UN and Global Compact Network)

Public libraries

4. The ALIA Australian Public Library Alliance (APLA) will map the Standards Guidelines and Outcome Measures for Public Libraries to the SDGs
5. APLA will develop an SDG storytime kit for public and school libraries
6. Workshop for effective storytelling, building on the IFLA manual, as part of the public library ALIA APLA SDG roadshow (regional events planned for 2019)

Advisory Committees

7. Every ALIA committee will be asked to put the SDGs on their agenda for discussion, ideas, implementation and reporting

Publications

8. ALIA will produce further reports to fill gaps eg case studies on migrant and multi-cultural community services, services for Indigenous communities and digital inclusion
9. ALIA will review its website content and identify where SDGs can be added
10. ALIA will identify SDG related stories in ALIA Weekly, INCITE and on social media by using the appropriate SDG logo
11. ALIA will promote the SDGs through its media relations

Stakeholder relations

12. ALIA will talk to the Australian Local Government Association about the SDGs
13. ALIA will continue to promote the role of libraries in delivering the SDGs to government at all three levels
14. ALIA will identify opportunities to link with academia, corporate and civil society groups

