

Margaret Allen, CEO and State Librarian, State Library of WA

Biography

Margaret Allen is the CEO and State Librarian at the State Library of Western Australia. The State Library's Better Beginnings program is recognised as Australia's most innovative and extensive family literacy program reaching more than 250,000 families since its inception.

Margaret's current professional activities include being the Chair of the Australian Libraries Copyright Committee, Director of the Australian Digital Alliance and has been elected to the a member of the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions Governing Board. Margaret is a past President and Fellow of the Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA) and past immediate past Chair of National and State Libraries Australasia.

